

	Fossil	The marks of a plant or animal protected inside rock.
	Excavate	To uncover objects buried in the ground.
	Extinct	Describes animals or plants that no longer exist.
	Herbivore	An animal that eats plants.
	Carnivore	An animal that eats meat.
	Omnivore	An animal that eats plants and other animals.
	Museum	A building where old and often important objects are displayed.
	Palaeontologist	A scientist who studies fossils.
	Jurassic	A period of time over 190 million years ago.

Lyme Regis

Term 2 -
Dinosaurs
Who were the Dinosaurs?

Mary Anning was an English fossil collector and palaeontologist.

Mary Anning Timeline

- On May 21st 1799 Mary was born in Lyme Regis, England.
- 1811 Mary discovered a skeleton belonging to a dinosaur!
- 1823 Mary discovered the first Plesiosaurus Skeleton.
- 1828 Mary discovered the first Pterodactylus.
- 1847 Mary died aged 47.

Did you know?

There was no snow in the North and South Pole when dinosaurs were alive and they lived all over the world!

