

What are Willow Class learning in Term 2?

English

Narrative writing

'The Chocolate Factory Ghost' by David O'Connell

Advertisements

for their chocolate boxes

Chocolate poetry

using similes and alliteration

Maths

Addition, subtraction, multiplication, division and fractions (solving word problems; using mental and written methods; estimating; using inverse operations; recognising, ordering, comparing and calculating with fractions, including 1/10; finding equivalent fractions).

The children will continue to be tested weekly on their times tables.

Geography

Locate the world's countries, focusing on West Africa, concentrating on the environmental regions, physical and human characteristics.

Fair-trade, including modern day slavery in West Africa linked to the chocolate trade.

Design

Technology

Researching, designing and creating chocolate packaging.

History

History of chocolate: discovery to mass production

Where does chocolate come from?

Music

Playing the Glockenspiel
Singing Christmas songs

PSHE

Understand family differences and conflicts

Recognise how words can be hurtful

Understand how someone can be a witness to bullying

PE

Invasion Games
Gym

RE

How does waiting for Christmas make it special?

Science

Keeping fit and healthy and understanding the right types of nutrition for our body

Human skeletons and muscles

Computing

Online safety
Data collection

Visitors are welcome to support learning during this topic. If you are able to come into school to hear the children read on a weekly basis we would be very grateful for your time. Please feel free to contact the office or Miss Roberts to arrange a visit.

WOW- Chocolate tasting—11th November.

