

English

Narrative writing based on
'Cinderella of the Nile'
by Beverley Naidoo

Newspaper reports about the discovery of Tutankhamen's tomb

Class reader: 'Ancient Egypt: Tales of Gods and Pharaohs' by Marcia Williams

History

Develop an understanding of life when the Ancient Egyptians were alive.
Understand the process and significance of mummification.
Understand what Ancient Egyptians did for fun.
Learn who the pharaohs were and about objects associated with them.
Learn about the discovery of Tutankhamen's tomb.
Discover the names of and stories associated with the Egyptian Gods.
Learn how Ancient Egyptians communicated through hieroglyphics.

Maths

Fractions: recognise unit and non-unit fractions; making a whole; recognise and count in tenths; use fractions on a number line; find fractions of a set of objects; add and subtract within a whole
Multiplication and division: use number facts to find related calculations; use written methods to multiply and divide (see calculation policy).

Music

Listen and appraise reggae songs, focusing on 'Three Little Birds' by Bob Marley.
Sing and improvise to reggae music.
Perform reggae music.

Computing

How people are connected online and how to stay safe (passwords, online purchases, safe communication).

Geography

Locate Egypt on a map.
Understand why Ancient Egyptians settled next to the Nile and how it provided natural resources.

Art and design

Design and make cartouches using hieroglyphics.
Create death masks.

PSHE

Identify dreams, goals and ambitions.
Plan the best way to achieve a goal.
Recognise how to overcome obstacles I may face.

PE

Invasion games
Dance

What have archaeologists taught us about the Ancient Egyptians?

WOW: 31st January

Trip to the Bristol Museum and Art Gallery to view the Ancient Egyptian exhibition and take part in an interactive workshop with the chance to handle artefacts. Parent helpers needed - please let the office know if you can help ☺

RE

Key question: why do people pray?
Describe and compare the practice of prayer for Christians, Hindus and Muslims.

Science

Forces and magnets.